

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc. It is a pure and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BARKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action equal to all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."
Dr. W. N. WYMAN, 1310 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

WASHINGTON TELEGRAMS.

THE LEGISLATIVE, EXECUTIVE AND JUDICIAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

Completed By the House Committee—Legislative Features of the Bill—Changes in Salaries—The Interstate Commerce Bill Not Acted Upon—Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The house committee on appropriations has completed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. It appropriates $20,206,910 which is less than the appropriation for the current year by $418,545. The estimates were $21,173,000. Among the legislative features of the bill is one providing that no part of the money appropriated for the civil service commission is to be used until the commission repeals the rule forbidding the appointment of applicants over the age of forty-five years.

The number of surveyors general which is now fifteen, is reduced by the bill to eleven, and it is provided that on and after July 1, 1888, all of the offices of surveyors general shall be abolished and the records of the offices turned over to the commissioner of the general land office, who is charged with the performance of all the duties now performed by the surveyors general, under the direction of the secretary of the interior.

The action of the committee in this matter was taken under authority of a resolution of the house, directing the committee to report such consolidations or abolitions among these offices as might after investigation appear to be proper. The bill omits all provision for the employment of clerks to senators and the session employees of congress are provided for on the basis of a long session of seven months. Ninety-six salaries are reduced by the bill, which also authorizes the employment of a few additional clerks in the legislative branch of the government, and an additional chief of division in the Second comptroller's office.

The salaries of the assistant treasurers at Chicago and Philadelphia, are increased from $4,500 to $5,000, while a reduction from $4,500 to $4,000 is made in the salaries of the assistant treasurers at Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis and San Francisco. The salary of the commissioner of customs is reduced from $4,000 to $3,600.

No provision is made for operating the mint at Carson City, Nev., but $1,200 is appropriated as salary for a custodian of the building. The salary of the governor of Alaska and judge of that territory are reduced from $3,000 each to $2,000 and $2,500 respectively, and slight reductions are made in salaries at western assay offices. The salaries of the commissioners of Indian affairs and commissioner of the general land office are increased from $4,000 to $4,500, and that of the assistant commissioner of the general land office from $3,000 to $3,500.

In the quartermaster general's bureau a consolidation of division is provided for, reducing the clerical force by thirteen persons. The salary of the superintendent of foreign mails is reduced from $3,000 to $2,500, while the salaries of the first assistant postmaster general and the superintendent of free delivery are each increased $500. Provision is made for one additional judge at $4,000 and one at $3,500.

The appropriation for traveling expenses of the civil service committee is cut from $4,000 to $2,000, and the contingent fund, formerly applied separately, is merged into that provided for the interior department. The salary of the newspaper document clerk of the house, one of the most onerous positions in that body, is reduced from $2,000 to $1,440.

Providing for War Vessels.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The sub-committee of the house committee on naval affairs, which has for some time been at work upon a bill providing for the construction of war vessels and which has had various measures on the subject before it, completed its work and will lay the result before the full committee to-morrow, with a view to securing action in the house early next week.

The bill prepared provides for two steel cruisers of about 4,000 tons displacement, of the type of Newark No. 1, with the best boilers and machinery, to cost not more than $1,300,000 each; four steel gunboats, each of about 1,700 tons displacement, of the type of gunboat No. 1, to cost not over $535,000, and one steel cruising torpedo boat of not more than 150 tons less than 135 feet in length, with a maximum speed of twenty-four knots an hour over a government knot course, and with a speed with armament and coal for ten service of not less than twenty knots an hour for six consecutive hours, to cost not more than $100,000, and be completed within one year from the time the contract is signed. The other vessels are to be built, as near as can be, under the terms of the act of August 3 last. The bill appropriates $2,450,000.

New Five Dollar Certificate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The treasury department will not be prepared to issue the new five dollar silver certificates until about the middle of this month, and the issue will then be very slow and in small quantities, it having been decided that it is best to withhold the notes until they have been much more thoroughly dried than were the one and two dollar certificates.

No Action on Interstate Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The president has not yet acted upon the interstate commerce bill. It is his almost invariable practice to defer action until about the last day. It is possible that the subject may receive cabinet consideration. The impression is gaining ground that the president is determining upon the commissioners to be appointed.

Washington Notes.

The advocates of trade dollar redemption now despair of bringing about such an agreement as will accomplish their purpose this winter.

The senate finance committee has decided to take up the bills before it affecting currency, banking surplus, etc., and to continue consideration until reports are made on all these subjects.

The return of standard silver dollars to the treasury is daily becoming more and more expensive.

The president has not yet taken up for consideration the bill submitted to him on Monday to pension needy veterans and dependent parents.

DEATH-BED REVELATION.

Startling Story of a Woman Who is Serving a Life Sentence in Prison.

STRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Mrs. Harriet Van Aiken who has been in the Onondaga penitentiary for ten years serving a life sentence for the murder of her husband at West Monroe, told a story on her death-bed yesterday which throws a new light on the crime for which she has suffered so long. She has been slowly dying for some time from the effects of a tumor in her left side. A reporter visited her yesterday, and Mrs. Van Aiken told in substance the following story: "For long years I have suffered from the crime of another. It was Loren Grover who killed my husband. Grover came to our house and accused my husband of poison. One of his (Grover's) cows. A quarrel ensued and my husband ordered Grover out of the house. Grover came back again with an ax and struck my husband with it on the head. Grover then drew a revolver and fired three shots at my husband as he lay on the floor. He then placed the pistol to my head and made me swear that I would never reveal the crime of which I had been a horrified witness. Grover then cut the body up, put the different parts into two bags and compelled me to drive him to a lonely spot three miles from the house, where he buried the remains. I repelled Grover's suggestion that I should run away with him, and he began to circulate stories that I murdered Van Aiken. I was convicted on circumstantial evidence, and have kept my secret until now." Her story will be investigated.

A BLOODY PRIZE FIGHT.

Twelve Rounds Between Ed Barry, of New York, and "Spud" Murphy, of Chicago.

HAMMOND, Ind., Feb. 4.—A bloody prize fight occurred here last night. The principals were Ed Barry, of New York, and "Spud" Murphy, of the Chicago stock yards. Murphy was unknown to fight fame, but Barry has a record for fifteen hard won battles in and about Birmingham, England. The fight was for a purse of $300, and was attended by a crowd of 140 Chicago sports. Murphy is thirty-four years old and Barry twenty-four, and they each weigh about 150 pounds. Twelve rounds were fought, and Barry won. Both were plucky, and the fight was a good one. Barry forced the fighting from the outset. In the first three rounds he rained in some severe face blows upon Murphy, cutting his eyes and left cheek.

It was hammer and tongs all the way through, but the most severe fighting took place after the tenth call to time. Then Barry, urged on by his friends, began endeavoring with all his ability to knock his man out. Several severe face hits told upon Murphy, and he was staggering when Barry hit him a heavy right-hander. Barry followed it up with blows in the face. They clinched and fought back against the ropes, and when separated, blood was streaming from cuts in Barry's face and shoulder. Several falls followed, and Murphy, bleeding, bruised and breathing heavily, staggered vainly forward as time was called, and his second threw up the sponge.

Pleaded Guilty of Manslaughter.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—To the surprise of all, Dr. T. J. Ford, when brought before the criminal court yesterday for the murder of J. C. Kirkpatrick, November 2 last, pleaded guilty of manslaughter. Dr. Ford was the leading physician of Shreveport and much respected. His young wife who was partially insane from the opium habit, was induced to elope with Kirkpatrick, a young drug clerk. They came to New Orleans where Dr. Ford followed them, and shot Kirkpatrick dead. There was a great deal of sympathy expressed for Ford. His friends crowded to his assistance, and the press unanimously justified the killing. Hence the surprise at his plea of guilty. It is said that he entered his plea in order to avoid a trial, and a pardon for him will be insisted on.

A Great Ice Gorge.

BELVIDERE, N. J., Feb. 4.—Intelligence has just reached here by messengers from Paha-quarry township of the formation of an immense ice gorge in the Delaware river, near Shawnee, Pa., above the Delaware water gap. The ice is piling up to a height of fifty feet, and the water has been forced out of its natural course and has overflowed the lowlands. Dwelling houses are nearly submerged. The house of Peter S. Michaels is under water to the second story. Mr. Michaels had to fly to the mountains with his family. A man upwards of ninety years of age named Blumick says he has never seen anything like the present state of affairs in the Delaware. Should there be a sudden thaw, the destruction of property throughout the valley would be appalling.

An Arrest in the Van Zandt Affair.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Chris. W. Spies, who married Miss Van Zandt as proxy for his brother August, the condemned Anarchist, has been arrested on the charge of bigamy. Counsel for the Anarchists have interested themselves in the matter, and they claim that the proxy marriage is perfectly legal, that it binds August only, and in no way affects the groom by proxy. Interviews with prominent lawyers yesterday, however, elicited the almost unanimous opinion that the proxy ceremony was a farce and without any legal effect whatever.

Man and Bear in Mortal Combat.

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., Feb. 4.—Julius Hanley, a settler near Wolverine station, thirty miles south of this village, while locating section lines through the woods on snowshoes, came suddenly upon a ravenous bear a short distance from his cabin and a terrible encounter ensued. Hanley's ears and nose were bitten off, his face frightfully slashed and the flesh on his breast torn off in strips. One hand was chewed off, and the bowels apparently ripped open. He was found in his cabin in a dying condition. Hanley fought with a pocket knife.

Who Bought the Southern Telegraph?

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Tribune says that the Southern Telegraph company, which was sold under foreclosure proceedings at Richmond, on Tuesday, was bought in the interest of the Western Union Telegraph company, which has owned a majority of the bonds for nearly a year.

West Virginia's Ballot.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 4.—The vote cast in joint assembly at noon was the ninth ballot, and is as follows: Camden 83; Goff 37; Lucas 4; Johnson; six scattering.

GREAT EASTERN STRIKE.

POLICE STILL ON DUTY ALONG THE RIVER FRONT.

No Use for Them as All is Quiet and the Strikers Are Behaving Themselves in an Orderly Manner—Hunting for Help in the West—Other Labor Troubles.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Police men still guard the river fronts to-day, but there is little or no need for their services in matter of quelling disturbances. The striking longshoremen are behaving themselves in an orderly manner for the most part, and those assembled near the docks look quietly at the new hands at work and carefully note the progress of their proficiency.

The report that the steamer Continental of the New Haven line, foot of Peck Slip, had been unable to make her trip to New Haven last night on account of the crew having struck, is untrue. She left on time with her regular crew, but was delayed by the strong northeast wind that was blowing.

At Clyde's Philadelphia and New York line the men who struck on Friday last are all back to work, and are taking and handling all freight offered. The Central Railroad of Vermont, at pier 39 1-2 East river, is handling freight as usual. The men employed by it, although unionists, refuse to strike.

Each pier along the North river presented a different appearance. Only two gates were opened at each pier and the men worked behind closed doors. This was done to enable a small detail of policemen to guard the piers with greater ease. The new men are nearly all lodged upon the piers and are careful of exposing themselves to the strikers, rarely venturing outside the gates. A force of 150 Italians are at work on pier one, of the Pennsylvania railroad this morning. They worked awkwardly and made little progress.

At the Old Dominion a full force of new men were at work and were handling the cargoes of the various vessels with alacrity. The vessels at the line will continue to leave on time. The steamer Richmond, of that line, will take the place of the Guyanlotte. The latter will be docked for examination and repairs. It is estimated $2,000 will cover the damages she sustained. The Ocean Steamship companies are as yet experiencing considerable inconvenience.

Steamship City of Chicago, of the Inman line, which was to have sailed to-day with the United States mail, will not leave, and her agents do not know when she will. The Republic, of the White Star line, advertised to sail to-day, cannot get away before to-morrow. The Erie people appeared to be the most hampered by freight. They had 300 Italians working away with hand trucks as best they could, hauling and stowing, but they appeared to make little progress.

At Pier 10, North river, the New Jersey Central company's truckmen were allowed to unload freight and but little more was done. At the New York Central docks the force was inadequate to meet the demands of business. The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western is still crippled, and the Lehigh Valley company likewise.

In speaking of the result of his efforts as a mediator between the coal companies and the strikers Austin Corbin said yesterday: "I conferred with the president of the coal roads and stated the desire of the knights for a conference looking to a settlement of the strike. The coal presidents informed me that they had a good force of non-union men working and were daily getting more. They said the strike was over so far as they were concerned, and refused to meet the knights."

Austin Corbin will make no further efforts to bring about a settlement between the companies and Knights of Labor. He says he agreed to do what he could and has done it, having met with a positive answer from the companies that they would not treat with the knights, and he can do no more.

A FLOOD FEARED.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 4.—The study rise of the river ever since yesterday morning of from four to five inches per hour has caused grave apprehensions of another great flood. The thunder and lightning, the mild weather, the incessant down pouring rain and the drift of the storm toward head waters, strengthen the rivermen and others in a prophecy of from fifty to sixty feet of water and probably more. This means a flooding of many families from their homes here and elsewhere, great loss of property, of life and disaster results generally.

Reports throughout the Ohio valley indicate a heavy rain everywhere. The constant down pour of yesterday and to-day reminds one of the beginning of the flood of 1884, which also began February 2. It is not, however, anticipated that the present freshet will reach that of 1884, when the gauge showed over seventy-one feet.

The danger line is about fifty feet, though it requires two feet more to flood the cellars of Main street. Many cellars and houses below Front are now flooded.

Rising Three Inches an Hour.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Feb. 4.—Rain came down in torrents all last night, and the denizens of the lowlands are greatly alarmed, and are preparing to move their families to a higher elevation, fearing another inundation. At 9 o'clock this morning the marks showed the river rising three inches an hour, with indications that the rise will increase rapidly before night. Should another flood come similar to the one of 1884 the levee here will be totally inadequate to protect the city because of its incomplete condition and the negligence to provide for checking the backwater. Great interest is manifested in the news from above.

At Evansville, Indiana.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 4.—The fears of another flood, nearly, if not equal to the destructive flood of 1884, were greatly increased here late last night. The river continues rising at the rate of half an inch an hour and is now about thirty-seven and three-tenths feet in the gauge. The rain fell in torrents nearly all day yesterday. These facts together with the telegraphic advices, from various points are anything but encouraging. The water is gradually spreading over the lowlands and there is no doubt but that a vast amount of corn and other property will be destroyed.

FOUND AT LAST.

A Mother Missing for Twenty Years Proves to Be a Millionaire.

CASTLETON, Vt., Feb. 4.—The death of Mrs. Anna Francis Prout, of Jersey City, completes the last chapter of a remarkable story. About thirty-five years ago she was married to a Mr. Baker, with whom she lived for several years, and of the children born to them, Charles, a resident of Kansas City, and William, who resides in Brooklyn, are now living. She disappeared from her husband's home over twenty years ago, and he secured a divorce.

Mrs. Baker had almost been forgotten until several months ago, when notices appeared in different papers asking for any information that could be given in regard to her, and stating that the death of an uncle in New York left an estate of about $1,500,000 to be divided among nine heirs, of which she was one. Notices were sent in every direction, but no tidings of the missing woman could be found. Yet the sons, in no way disheartened, kept up the search, and about six weeks ago they learned that she was in Jersey City, in a destitute condition. An investigation proved her to be the right person, and the two boys were soon with her, and everything possible done for her comfort, and to rally her broken down health, but in vain. Her claim to her share of the estate was proved, and one of her first acts was to bestow on each of the two boys $10,000 and a handsome gold watch. The two sons were well known here, where they have many friends.

SENATOR RIDDLEBERGER EXPLAINS.

He Gives His Reasons Why He Voted Against the Fishery Retaliatory Bill.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Patrick Ford, of the Irish World, has received the following letter from Senator Riddleberger, explaining why he voted against the fishery retaliatory bill:

"SENATE CHAMBER, WASHINGTON, February 1, 1887."

"DEAR SIR—I beg leave to say that since my vote on the so-called retaliatory bill, I have been requested from several sources to make public my reasons for my single vote. Briefly stated, I regard such retaliatory legislation as child's play, especially when Canadian fishermen are almost within a stone's throw of American shores. What we want are coast defenses, cruisers and men of war to resent insults as they are offered. Trifling with such matters but humiliates and procrustinates. If we would have the respect of England we must command it, and there is but one way to demand it. Beginning with retaliation, so-called, will ultimately end in treaties which may swap American citizens for boodle aldermen. Guns are better guarantees against insults and injuries than paper treaties. Such is my humble opinion. Very respectfully yours,

"H. H. RIDDLEBERGER."

Serious Result of Crossed Electric Wires.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 4.—The lines of the Brush Electric Light company during the heavy rain last night became crossed with those of the fire alarm system of this city, and almost every box on Main street was burned out. In consequence the main business portion of the city was left temporarily unprotected. Had it not been for the presence of mind and quick work of the chief operator in the signaling tower, the damage, which is estimated at $7,000, would have been much greater. When at about midnight the flames which darted from the switchboard discovered to him the cause, he hastily threw a large ladder in the room upon the switchboard and standing upon it cut off the loop in time to save the remaining portion of the system.

Who Holds the Counterfeit?

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The recent press dispatches to the effect that the Press club, of this city, had been presented with the first five-dollar greenback issued by the United States, being No. 1, series A, 1862, has attracted the attention of Cashier Lawrence Gates, of Kinney & Co.'s bank, of Angola, Ind., and develops the fact that Mr. Gates also lays claim to the possession of the identical note. As a natural consequence there must either have been two No. 1, of series A, issued or one of the notes is a counterfeit. The Chicago note has been pronounced genuine by experts, and President Schneider, of the Illinois National bank, the treasurer of the Press club, has invited Mr. Gates to bring his note to Chicago, and make comparisons.

Important Telephone Suit.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4.—The Brooks Telegraph Construction company has begun suit in the United States circuit court against the local representatives of the Bell Telephone company for violation of plaintiff's exclusive right to use the metallic circuit system for long-distance telephoning. The Brooks company claim the sole right to use metallic circuits for this purpose in the United States, and allege that the proposed telephonic network of the defendant between New York and Philadelphia, and throughout New Jersey and Connecticut, is an infringement. The importance of the question involved is considered only second to that of the telephone patent itself.

Fifty Degrees Below.

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 4.—Towns along the Canadian Pacific, at the base of the Rocky Mountains, have been snowed up for a week. At Calgary the mercury is 50 degrees below zero, and owing to the blockade there is a coal famine. Great fears are entertained for the stock in the Calgary and Macleod districts. If the storms continue it will probably result in heavy losses by the cattle owners.

Death of a Divine.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Rev. Dr. Robert S. Howland, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street, died yesterday at Morristown, N. J., aged sixty-seven years. The immediate cause of death was a second shock of paralysis, the first having occurred nineteen years ago.

WILKESBAIRE, Pa., Feb. 4.—At Duryea yesterday Mrs. Dale secretly gave her son, Nathaniel Dale, laudanum in some beer in order to put him to sleep, while his sister was being married, as he was violently opposed to the wedding, and had threatened to shoot the groom. After the ceremony was over it was found that young Dale was dead from the effects of the poison. Mrs. Dale confessed her action, but denies having intentionally given an overdose of the laudanum.

"Maysville Manufacturing Association."

There is a move on foot to organize the above association at an early date. The parties who have taken the matter in hand are men of push and enterprise. They realize that if Maysville ever amounts to more than she is now, we must encourage industrial establishments. Manufactory are needed to build up most every town, and Maysville is no exception. Our advantages are many, and there is no reason why we should not share in the progress and development spreading over the South. Our shipping facilities have heretofore been rather limited, but the completion of the new railroad will remedy this want.

A meeting will likely be called at an early day to give all parties an opportunity to join in the above enterprise. The plan of the association is similar, somewhat, to that of the building associations. The shares are of a par value of $200, which are to be paid in weekly installments of 50 cents. It is thought that 2,000 shares can be obtained. This will create a fund of $1,000 a week, and it will only be a short time when a large sum can be obtained to invest in some manufacturing enterprise that will not only benefit the members of the association, but will prove a big advantage to the city. Men who have capital do not seem to care much whether their town advances any or not, and keep their cash locked up in the banks. It remains then for men of smaller means, the merchants, grocers and all whose success and living depends upon the improvement of the city to take hold of these enterprises.

They can well afford to invest 50 cents, or $1, or $2 a week in such a scheme. If the plan shouldn't prove successful, the money would be returned to the shareholders, as in building associations. Let the people give it a thought.

The Dow law has closed over 3,000 saloons in Ohio, but there are plenty of them still running.

The Cincinnati Sun is a brilliant luminary no longer. It will shine no more. It went down on the first of February, never to rise again.

An ordinance passed at Nicholasville requires a strict observance of all Sunday laws, and demands that all town officials shall abstain from the use of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors.

Hon. G. A. C. Holt's visit to Newport and Hon. A. S. Berry's announcement as a candidate for Governor followed each other with striking significance. Has the statesman from Calloway an understanding with the demagogue from Campbell?

Judge Fitzgerald, of Cincinnati, has become such a terror to evil-doers that they have resorted to the assassin's methods to forever put him out of the way. The good people of that city should congratulate themselves that the thugs failed in their dastardly attempt.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Census report, —; number on roll, 14; present, 13. Clara Shelton has lost no time. The Trustees are John G. Bacon, John Burgess and W. L. Holton.

Miss Mollie Bacon is teaching her sixth session here. She has on her desk a well-selected library of professional works, and if we may judge from her success as a teacher, we must infer that Miss Bacon has profited by the suggestions of these books. She uses written work, and is a painstaking and careful teacher. Her pupils do not only make good advancement in their studies, but she has the tact of enlisting their sympathies on the side of right and duty, and this develops the best traits of character. Her pupils are polite—gentlemen and ladies. This is the highest test of teaching power, and should be the aim of every teacher. The formation of character is the fundamental purpose of all education, and the acquisition of knowledge is subsidiary to this end.

OSBORNE.

Census report, —; number on roll, 48; present, 27. Bennie Pickett and Lula Graybill have lost no time. The Trustees are Clift Osborne, Scott Osborne and John Lunsford. Clift Osborne has visited the school. We were pleased to see that the school house had received some much-needed substantial repairs.

Miss Tina Bledsoe is teaching her second term here. She is an energetic and painstaking teacher, and well qualified for the duties of the school room. Her pupils show very satisfactory improvement since last year. She uses written work and succeeds in enlisting the attention and interest of the pupils, and in securing from them their best efforts. Miss Bledsoe's school shows her to be a successful teacher measured by the highest test—that of actual work in the school room.

LIST OF COLLEGE WAR CRIES.

The Peculiar Whoops and Shouts Adopted by Different Students.

One of the college papers has compiled a list and history of college cheers. According to it the original shouts of the colleges were a repetition of the name of the college. This gave an advantage to the colleges which had sonorous names, and as the constant aim of cheering is to make more noise than the other cheerers, new yells were evolved by a process of evolution. These came into existence a quarter of a century ago, when Yale and Harvard had their boat races on Lake Quinsigamond, when the "Rah! Rah! Rah!" thrice repeated was first heard. Harvard sounded the "Rahs" full, and added "Harvard," pronounced so that the ar and a clipped d were all that were heard. "Yale" was added to the New Haven college's "Rahs" with a long howl on the a.

Princeton's cheer was developed soon after, as Princeton came into athletic relations with the other colleges. They took the three "Rahs" for a basis, and added the sky-rocket six-boom-ah, which they hold on to as long as the nine "Rahs" of their opponents hold out, and then yell "Princeton!" as a callopho clinax. Dartmouth has one of the most novel cheers of all. Some Indian must have invented it, and stout college lungs give it the right accent. It is Wah-hoo-wah! Wah-hoo-wah! Diddy, diddy, Dartmouth! Wah-hoo-wah! It is very picturesque, and only a sophomore can Wah-hoo to the best advantage. The hoo is like a human owl's hoot.

Everybody has heard Columbia's Hooray! Hooray! C-o-l-u-m-b-i-a! The name spells out rhythmically. Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore has taken the ground plan of the cheer and built on it, adding J-o-h-n-s H-o-p-k-i-n-s. Instead of C-o-l-u-m-b-i-a, Stevens Institute at Hoboken and Union college at Schenectady have similar cheers.

Rutgers has a cheer almost as original as Dartmouth's. It is "Rah! Rah! Rah! Bow-wow-wow! Rutgers! Rutgers!" It has an entrancing and resonant "Rah! Rah! Rah! Williams! yams! yams! yams! Pennsylvania University has a wild Philadelphia cheer without any special charm. It is the three "Rahs" and Penn-syl-van-i-a-n-i! The College of the City of New York cheer better. They say "Rah three times and add C-I-C-N-Y!"

Cornell has a cheer that, once heard, cannot be forgotten. It is like the rhyme of the passenger. It is given with proper emphasis only in times of excitement. Here it is: Cornell! Cornell! Cor-cor-cor-nell! I yell like —! Cornell!—New York Sun.

Foiled With a Silver Brick.

M. W. Brown, of New Mexico, said to a reporter: "Mining now is not what it used to be. In early days there were incidents without number. When I first went to Silver City, N. M., to open the mine which I have recently located here, the railroads had not entered that territory, and the stage robber flourished in all his glory. It was not infrequent for them to make good hauls of bricks or dust, both in that and other sections of the mining country. I had some trouble in that line and finally concluded that I had the remedy in my own hands, and put my bullion into a 500 pound brick and sent it to the Philadelphia mint. The stage was attacked, and the robbers got all they could, but when they came to my brick they stopped short and remarked: 'Well, it looks mighty pretty, but it's too much for us,' and went. I was notified from the mint that they would not again receive such a large brick. I had not anticipated this, and was rather put back, but I wrote to the people at the mint, explaining the situation very clearly, and they replied that under those circumstances they would receive 500-pound bricks, but no larger.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Building Steamers for England.

New York, Feb. 4.—Mr. Lundy, one of the owners of the White Star steamship line, who is in this city, yesterday received a confirmation of the report that the British government had granted a subsidy to the company upon condition that it shall build two other fast steamers in accordance with designs furnished by the admiralty and that the government should have the use of the steamers of the line as armed transports in case of war. The new vessels will be of steel, and will have twin screws. They will be 565 feet in length, 110 feet longer than the Germanic and sixty four feet longer than the Umbria, of the Cunard line. Each vessel will carry seventeen engineers. The two will probably be ready for the traffic of 1888, and will each cost about $1,500,000.

To Celebrate Moody's Birthday.

New York, Feb. 4.—Saturday, February 5, will be the fiftieth anniversary of Dwight L. Moody, the well known evangelist. Many of his friends of this city are endeavoring to make the day memorable by raising a fund of money to be known as the "Birthday Memorial Fund for the Endowment of the Schools for Young Women and Young Men," established by Mr. Moody at Northfield, Mass. Friends of the evangelist in Great Britain are understood to be moving in the same direction. James Talcott, of this city, is the treasurer of the fund.

Railroad Collision.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 4.—A special from Echo, Utah, says an accident occurred at 9 o'clock last night by a collision of a west bound passenger and freight in the yards. Lewis Remis, of Evanston, W. T., engineer of the freight, was caught in the wreck, and his lower extremities literally ground off. He died in twenty minutes. Two men in the cab with him jumped and escaped. The two engines are a total wreck. Among the passengers were high army officials on route to Fort Duchesne to sit in court martial.

Simply a High Old Drunk.

TUSCOLA, Ill., Feb. 4.—Another grand wolf hunt was attempted near here yesterday. Over 2,000 persons, half of them on horseback, participated. Only one wolf was killed. Unlike the hunt two weeks ago, this affair was badly organized. The day was rainy, and a large number of the participants were under the influence of liquor. In a dispute as to who should be given the possession of the wolf's carcass, pistols were drawn, and a general free fight was narrowly averted.

Disease Among Live Stock.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 4.—Both houses of the legislature have passed a resolution requesting congress to pass laws to effectually extirpate all contagious diseases among live stock by placing in hands of competent agents of the government full power to act in all matters relating thereto, and that a sufficient appropriation be made of not less than $1,000,000 to pay all the necessary expenses of the same.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!—Both branches of Congress have just passed an act granting a pension of $12 per month to all federal soldiers in the late war who are now disabled from age, disease or infirmity, whether disabled by actual service in the army or not. The bill will very probably receive the President's signature. I am prepared to prosecute all claims for pensions under said law; also all Mexican war claims at reasonable rates. GEO. W. Aditl MASON PRODUCE COMPANY.

"I do not like thee, Dr. Fell, The reason why I cannot tell."

It has often been wondered at, the bad odor this oft-quoted doctor was in. 'Twas probably because he, being one of the old-school doctors, made up pills as large as bullets, which nothing but an ostrich could bolt without nausea. Hence the dislike. Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and no larger than bird-shot, and are quick to do their work. For all derangements of the liver, bowels and stomach, they are specific.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by J. C. Peor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

WESLEY'S efforts in this city some two years ago attracted widespread attention and caused hundreds to visit him who had almost abandoned all hope of relief, and in nearly every instance the sufferers were either cured or greatly benefited from the treatment they received. His scientific method of diagnosing disease without asking the patient a single question is a surprise to them all, but very easily understood by the doctor, as he has made the human system a study for the past sixteen years, and his large experience in the hospitals of Europe and this country has enabled him to perform many wonderful cures which have been pronounced incurable. DR. WESLEY makes a specialty in the treatment of chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Dropsy and all the diseases of the Blood, Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Spine, Piles, Fistulas,

Committee on Internal Improvements was instructed to put down a single instead of a double crossing at north side of Third and Wall streets.

A petition from the draymen was presented, praying that their license be reduced from $4.15 to $2.50 a year. The proposed amendment to the ordinance regulating the license on wagons, carts, drays, &c., was taken up and created a lively discussion all around. The amendment strikes out the words "for hire" in the original ordinance, and requires a license on vehicles of most all kinds. Mr. Wood maintained Council had no right to license any vehicle except those run "for hire," and produced the charter to sustain his argument. He said it was unjust and not authorized by the charter—that Council had no right to pass such a law. Mr. Rains thought otherwise. He said the streets had to be kept in repair, and that it was certainly just for those who wore them out by running their carts, wagons, drays, &c., over them to contribute something to aid in the repairs. Others joined in the discussion, but "Senator" Wood had the crowd in attendance with him. He was frequently applauded, but was out-voted in the wind-up, and the amendment was passed after some changes had been made. A motion to exempt private buggies, carriages, &c., was fought by Mr. Wood and was lost. The amendment, as passed, provides—

That the owner of each four-horse wagon, hack or hackney coach, or other four-wheeled vehicle for the conveyance of passengers, except omnibuses, shall pay for his or her license the sum of $3; the owner of any omnibus or coach of that description, the sum of $5.00.

The owner of each two-horse wagon shall pay a license of $3.00.

The owner of each dray shall pay a license of $3.00.

The owner of each cart, one-horse wagon

for the delivery of groceries, goods, &c., one-horse express wagon, one horse butcher wagon, one-horse baggage wagon, one-horse lumber wagon, and all one-horse vehicles shall pay for licenses the sum of $2.00 for each.

The amendment takes effect from its passage, and all licenses shall run from January 1st to December 31st.

The petition of George F. Eitel for a coffee-house license on Third street, near Central Presbyterian Church, was not granted. The report of the committee showed the housekeepers on the street stood 20 to 15 against the petition.

Mrs. Alice O'Mara was granted permission to remove her coffee-house to the building on east side of Market street, three doors below Third.

Q. A. Means & Son were elected city undertakers for the ensuing year, their proposition to bury the pauper dead at $10 for adults and $7.50 for children having been accepted.

Riffe & Henderson asked permission to erect a sign, but their petition was not properly signed and was tabled.

Mr. Cox called attention to the fact that the city paid $20 or $25 last month for a person to guard prisoners while employed on the streets. He thought this unnecessary, and it was ordered that hereafter prisoners be worked in the station house yard, or, if worked on the streets, that it should be done under the supervision of the Marshal or the Internal Improvement Committee.

The proposition of the Maysville and Germantown Turnpike Company in regard to what is known as West Second street was accepted. The city is to have same control over that portion of the road, beginning at Short street and extending to the eastern abutment of the bridge at Beasley's Branch, as it has over other streets, and assumes all liabilities for damages occurring on said portion after the contract or proposition is entered into.

The complaint of Wesley Order as to the flooding of his house every hard rain, was referred to Committee on Internal Improvement.

THE CANADIAN TROUBLE.

PREMIER MACDONALD HAS NOT YET CHANGED HIS MIND.

He Says Canada's Attitude is Fixed and Must Remain—England Will See That Canada is Supported—Opinions of Prominent Men at Washington—War Talk.

New York, Feb. 4.—A special to the Herald from Toronto, Ont., says: "I covered the ground so fully in my interview with your correspondent last week that the matter seems almost exhausted." This is what Sir John Macdonald said yesterday when asked a few questions in regard to the fisheries matter. "I have not changed the opinion I then expressed," he continued. "Canada's attitude on the question remains the same now, so far as I am concerned, as it did then, and as it shall continue to be so long as I have anything to do with it."

"How about the rumor of assistance in the way of gunboats from England to help the Canadian authorities to protect the fisheries?"

"No one can deny," said Sir John, "that the position we have maintained all along is strictly within the law. The whole question is and that is involved in international law. I have been assured that Canada's course throughout has been strictly a legal one. The English government acts, as it always does, in accordance to the law, and will see that Canada's position on the question is supported. It is very erroneous to say that Canada, in protecting her fisheries, her acknowledged legal rights, is attempting to coerce the United States."

If the provisions of the Belmont bill were enforced—which Sir John did not appear to think very likely—the present position of Canada on the fisheries would not be altered. He could not anticipate the great inconvenience that would attend the prohibition of the entry of Canadian goods, railway cars and vessels into the United States, but such legislation would not alter the position of Canada on the fisheries, which was fixed and must remain so.

No War Vessels Ordered So Far.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 4.—Referring to the report that the British government would send to Canada four war ships for the protection of the fisheries, Maj. Tilton, deputy minister of fisheries, said yesterday that the report was entirely without foundation, at least so far as vessels being dispatched to Canada especially for that purpose went. He said that the government were now following precisely the same course they followed in 1870.

At the time, on application being made to the imperial government, three or four of the British ships of war, attached to the British North American station, were ordered to cruise about the Canadian fishing grounds during the fishing season. The same course will be followed this year, and three or four of the smaller class of war vessels of the British fleet now wintering at Bermuda, will be dispatched when the fishing season opens to cruise along the coast, from Cape Sable to the Bay Chaleur.

Referring to Capt. Jacobs' statement that he was refused permission to land a shipwrecked crew at a point in Prince Edward Island, Major Tilton says that the government has instituted a most thorough investigation into the matter, and, although there is some evidence yet to be obtained, he now feels positive that when all the facts are published it will be found that the officers of the Dominion government did not refuse permission to Capt. Jacobs, of the American schooner Adams, at any time or place, to land a shipwrecked crew that he had picked up, as has been stated.

The Feeling at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—It is expected the house bill relating to the fisheries dispute will come up this afternoon. Mr. Belmont prefers this bill to that of the senate. The majority in the house incline to the Belmont bill because it goes further. The members of the foreign affairs committee in the house are very much in earnest in favoring retaliatory measures. Mr. Crain, of Texas, a member of this committee, says a vigorous measure should be passed through, and then the country should prepare itself for war. There was no harm in making the preparation. "We certainly would be stronger in enforcing a measure of retaliation if we were prepared for any emergency," Mr. Crain favors a general system of coast defenses. Mr. Singleton, of Mississippi, also a member of the committee, says the pending measure means that England must stop interfering with our rights.

"If they do not," said he, "we will make them. We will fight. It has always been that way. We have not been prepared. We have stood a great deal, but when we have moved it has been found we were better prepared than was thought. If they do, there is no danger of our not being prepared. If they do not regard this warning, England will receive a worse defeat than she has ever suffered from us before."

A nautical officer, in speaking to-day of the importance of congress this session, giving liberal appropriations for the building up of the navy, said that if the money is not appropriated this session, it will practically put a stop to any active operations in this direction for the next two years. No money appropriated now would be available before a year from next July, and then there would be an addition needed of several months in which to prepare plans.

A Wonderful Fast Almost Ended.

WABASH, Ind., Feb. 4.—Mary Baker, the famous fasting girl of White county, yesterday completed the one hundredth day of her phenomenal fast, which began last October. The patient has been growing weaker for several days, and it is apparent to her parents and attendants that the end is very near. The girl bears her affliction heroically, and is never heard to murmur a complaint. Dr. Reed, the physician in charge of the case, says that the fast is unquestionably a genuine one, and a big puzzle to the medical fraternity. A dispatch from Dr. Reed, at Monon, last evening, stated that Miss Baker is still alive, but weaker, and that the extremities are growing colder, pulsation quicker and respiration ninety-nine. Death is now looked for at any moment.

A Probable Lynching.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 4.—Information has been received here of the murder at Canan yesterday of R. H. Johnston, the postmaster, by Charles Ray, a noted desperado. Ray heard that Johnston had secured a warrant for his arrest by mail and killed him in cold blood. Ray was arrested and will probably be lynched.

JOINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Sheriff Baker, of Auglaize county, pays $150 for locking up the wrong man at Fremont, O. The fellow sued for $50,000 damages.

Darbyville, O., riot cases end by jury finding Deputy Marshal Bert Deviney guilty of manslaughter. Trial lasted four weeks. Deviney killed Seymour Darling in making an arrest last summer.

A movement is on foot to condemn the Hendricks homestead grounds immediately facing the Indianapolis state capitol, and convert the same into a grand plaza. Also, to erect a statue on the very ground where the great man died.

The family of W. W. Raub, who lives in the northwestern part of Indiana, is in hard luck. Burglars broke into their house, which caused Mrs. Raub to go insane. Her husband sent her little daughter to her mother's at Chicago. Here the little girl was poisoned nearly to death by a dose of carbolic acid. Then Raub tried to have the mother-in-law declared insane, but without success. In the meantime his wife ran away, but he pursued, capturing her on the shores of the lake, after she had bitten him severely through the hand.

Kicked by a Mule and Killed.

VINCENNES, Ind., Feb. 4.—At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the barn of Henry Boobe was struck by lightning and set on fire. In attempting to save his property, Mr. Boobe was kicked and trampled upon by a mule, receiving injuries from which he died. Three horses, three mules, 200 bushels of clover seed, grain and other property were destroyed, amounting in all to $3,500 loss. Uninsured.
